Visible Consistencies

Last week saw the launch of 3 new GEMS that can be awarded in our schools. The aim of these GEMS is to reflect our visible consistencies. The 3 things we, as staff, will always praise when we see it being done well and address if it isn't up to our standards in school.

This is about ALL staff including midday supervisors, office staff and site staff. We are all looking for our visible consistencies. I have asked staff to look at children in their own classes and children across school. It is about our expectation that 'this is what we do around here.'

The 3 visible consistencies decided by the staff are:

Manners - holding doors open, waiting for adults, using please and thank you, greeting people politely

Looking sharp - having the correct uniform, shirt tucked in, appropriate shoes, etc

Corridor champion - moving around our school quietly, maintaining distance, walking

Since launching these, I seem to have gained a new ability. I walk past a group of children and they immediately start tucking in shirts! Its uncanny.

I hope these consistencies will reward the children and continue to build on our already super behaviour in school. The children are very clear on our expectations and how we do things in our school.

Finding a new way

At this time of year, I always look forward to our Macmillan coffee morning. Traditionally we have invited family, friends and the community to join us for a drink, cake and biscuits. The hall becomes a hive of activity and we raise lots of money for such an important charity. Cancer is a disease that has impacted many our family and friends, so it is no wonder everyone wants to do their bit towards supporting Macmillan. This year we have had to change the way we behave to ensure we keep everyone safe during the pandemic, but we refused to let that stop our support for Macmillan cancer support. This year we are holding a coffee and cake competition. We are hoping that children and their families join in, have their drink and cake together then share a photograph with school.

If you log into your child's eSchools account you will find a project. Here you can upload your photographs and scan a QR code to make a donation directly to Macmillan. Some of the adults in school have already uploaded their photographs so take a look. If you would rather make a donation of cash please put the money in an envelope with your child's photograph and send it into school.

I can't wait to see all your brilliant photographs - there will be some cake prizes for the best photographs. Thank you for your continued support at this time and I hope you find the time to join in with this competition.

Spotlight on Badger Class

Badger 5's theme this term is "Stargazer", we have been learning about space and reading a book about Liam's adventure in space- 'Cosmic'. This is what the children have said about the term so far:

Kaihan: I've enjoyed our adventure through space, I've learnt so much.

Izzy: I love being in Badger Class. I want to carry on my journey through space forever.

Megan: Badger Class make you feel safe and welcome; I'm glad we're back in school.

Olivia: I love being back in school. I'm really interested in our theme about space- I've learnt that on Mars the sunset is blue.

Jack: This whole class is 'Cosmic', I want to learn more.

Warren: I'm getting used to my handwriting pen.

Sophie: I'm really enjoying our book, 'Cosmic' is really cool.

Roxy: I love being in Badger Class and reading our book.

Lily-Eve: I'm really enjoying being with Mrs Price and Badger Class- it's really cool. I've learnt that Jupiter is the largest planet.

Doctors/Dentist appointments

We prefer parents to avoid booking appointments during the school day because of children missing important work in school. However, we understand that this is sometimes unavoidable. We do however require an appointment card in order to be able to authorise appointments on official school registers.
